

On Holy Quran -A Hindi Poem was composed by Former President of India Shankar Dayal Sharma

The Kitab was for A'mal.

You made it for dua.

The Kitab was for understanding.

You made it for reading.

The Kitab was code of life for living people.

You made it a manifesto for dead people.

The Kitab was full of knowledge.

You entrusted it to ignorant people.

The Kitab was revealed to impart knowledge of the creation.

You made it text book for madrasha.

It came to rouse the dead nations to life.

You made it prayer for dead people.

O Muslims! What have you done?
